

Orpheum Theater

TODAY and TONIGHT
Great Spectacle Immortal

"BEGGARS OF THE SACRED HEART"

Aquila's latest offering 4 Soul Stirring Acts 4

"ONE WHO SERVES"

Beautiful Reliance
drama.

"A VERSATILE VILLAIN"

Corking Keystone
comedy.

Greatest Program in the City.

MONDAY

Double Feature Day
CHAS. CHAPLIN

(2-reel comedy)
'A PIECE OF AMBER'

(2-reel K. B.)
Coolest Place in the City

The Star Theater

Today Mr. Walter Edwards and Miss Clara Williams play unique roles in—

"Scale of Justice"

(A 2-part Domino Society Drama.)

"The Dead Heart"

(A thrilling 3-part, 3-reel play immortalized by the late Sir Henry Irving, overflowing with thrills and excitement and will more than hold interest.)

"The Butcher's Bride"

(An L-Ko comedy scream)

6 Reels—in all today—6 Reels

Monday, a strong Military drama—

"The Revolutionist"

(A 4-part Special Release)

ODEON THEATRE

PICTURES TODAY

The latest episode of "The Hazards of Helen," entitled—

"A Railroaders' Bravery"

"Mr. Jarr and the Dachund"

No. 7 of the celebrated Jarr series.

"The Home Coming"

Essany Drama

COMING NEXT WEEK

W. L. HALL'S FAMOUS FRENCH FOLLIES

14 in Company.

ROBINSON GRAND THE THEATRE BEAUTIFUL

The House That Raised the Standard
The Service That Makes You See Stars Ask Anyone—As Cool as the Mountain Top.

TODAY

Continuous 12 noon to 11 P. M.

The six-act Riot

"TILLIE'S PUNCTURED ROMANCE"

With Charles Chaplin, Marie Dressler and Mabel Normand. The only six-act comedy ever filmed.

MONDAY—(Paramount)

Jesse L. Lasky in association with DAVID BELASCO presents

EDITH WYNNE MATHISON
in David Belasco's Greatest Success,
"THE GOVERNOR'S LADY"

Greatest Entertainment in the World at the Price—Always 10c

Saturdays Continuous

Other Days 1-30, 3-15, 7-00, 8-45

"The Organ with the Human Voice"

THE HOME OF
THE PIPE ORGAN

BIJOU THEATER

A nice program today. Included are lots of funny ones. Also a fine three-part drama—

"THE STRUGGLE UPWARD"

(3 parts)

Thrilling railroad drama, Helen Holmes—

"The Race for the Crossing"

"Sophia and the Faker"

Bray's Cartoon—

"THE POLICE DOG"—(A scream)

Charles Chaplin in—

"HIS NIGHT OUT"

Coming Tuesday, June 22d—

"THE GODDESS"

Thursday, June 24th, big special V. L. S. E., Inc.—

"THE SLIM PRINCESS"

GREAT COMEDY AT ROBINSON GRAND

"Tillie's Punctured Romance," Featuring Marie Dressler and Charles Chaplin.

The feature today at the Robinson Grand is the great six-act comedy, "Tillie's Punctured Romance," with Charles Chaplin, Marie Dressler and

Scene from "The Governor's Lady."

Mabel Normand for its stars. "The piece is not unknown to Clarksburg theatergoers, as it played at this Greatly Benefited by Chamberlain's Liniment.

"I have used Chamberlain's Liniment for sprains, bruises and rheumatic pains, and the great benefit I received with the prompt relief which has received justifies my recommending it in the highest terms," writes Mrs. Florence Slife, Wabash, Ind. If you are troubled with rheumatic pains you will certainly be Chamberlain's Liniment affords. Obtainable everywhere. — Advertisement.

The Bijou program today is spectacular, please the big crowd who will attend this afternoon and night. There is a fine drama in three parts, Charles Chaplin is seen in "A Night Out," which is a scream; Sophia is there and she is funny; Helen Holmes pulls the throttle of the engine in "The Race for the Crossing," and "The Police Dog," another of Bray's cartoons, puts across some funny stunts. Taken as a whole, no Saturday show has ever equalled this one.

Monday Anna Nilsson and Guy
Guy Coombs will be seen in "The Rival," a three-part Kalem drama. In this picture Flis Nilsson enacts some daring acting in which she appears to advantage.

The producing managers are now preparing contracts which will prevent the actors and stars under their management from posing in moving picture plays. They claim they should enjoy the exclusive profits from stellar popularity as it is they who make the stars.

Miss Clara Williams heads the program today at the Star theater, with Walter Edwards and a selected cast of movie favorites in a society drama of love and intrigue entitled
"Scales of Justice." It is replete with excitement and is in two parts. A late Domino release, "The Butcher's Bride," a screaming, hilarious LKO comedy, and, to make a complete program, an exciting three-part military play, entitled "The Dead Heart," by Sir Henry Irving, are also shown.

Monday a strong, gripping military drama, "The Revolutionist," in four parts, will be the feature.

Joseph Galbraith, who stars in "Flying A" dramas, played a leading role in the stage production, "What Happened to Jones?"

This afternoon and evening will be the last opportunity to see the fine tabloid musical comedy company that has been playing at the Odeon theater. The Jackson and Andrews company is playing "The White Light Cafe" this afternoon and evening and will close its engagement here this evening and a most successful engagement it has been.

For the coming week the offering at the Odeon will be W. L. Hall's famous "French Follies," a company of fourteen persons—nine girls and five men—and from reports received on this show it promises to be a good one.

The pictures for today are the latest episode of "The Hazards of Helen,"
entitled, "A Railroaders' Bravery";
"Mr. Jarr and the Dachund"; and
"The Homecomings," an Essany drama.

Aquila's latest offering, and one of the world's greatest film masterpieces,
"Beggars of the Sacred Heart," in four intense acts, is the feature offering at the Orpheum theater today.
This drama is even greater than "Felora," that made such a hit in all the larger cities. An all star cast of noted players appears in the leading roles, and with their clever acting, this immortal tale, so famous, is vividly and beautifully played in film form.

Monday will be double feature day at this popular theater and two large and interesting pictures will be shown—Charles Chaplin in a two-reel corking comedy of real Chaplin type and "A Piece of Amber," an intense two-reel Kay Bee drama.

A naked new born baby plays an important part in "The Madonna," an American Beauty release for June 19.

Marie Dressler, who is hard at work at the Lubin studio on her new feature film comedy, "Tillie's Tomato Surprise," written by Acton
Davies and being directed by Howell Hansel, shattered a record of quite a cluster of years this week when she actually got on the back of a horse, and, alone and unaided, navigated him from one point to another while a couple of motion picture cameras recorded the feat.

James A. Gundy and his "Love Pirates" close a three-days' engagement tonight at the Palace theater.

Tonight a special program of musical numbers has been arranged with a number of specialist acts. A two-part Ideal photoplay, "The Other Girl," a rich comedy, "The Pretty Policeman," and "The Pretty Policeman" are showing on the screen.

A big surprise is coming for next week—don't miss it.

A new dramatization of Montague Glass's stories, called "Potash and Perlmutter in Society," will be produced early in September with a cast including Mathilde Cotterly, Barney
Bernard, Julius Tannen, Louis
Dressler, Lee Donnelly and Lee Kohlman.

The Bijou program today is spectacular, please the big
crowd who will attend this afternoon
and night. There is a fine drama in three parts, Charles Chaplin is seen in "A Night Out," which is a scream;
Sophia is there and she is funny;
Helen Holmes pulls the throttle of
the engine in "The Race for the Crossing," and "The Police Dog,"
another of Bray's cartoons, puts
across some funny stunts. Taken as a whole, no Saturday show has ever
equalled this one.

Monday Anna Nilsson and Guy
Guy Coombs will be seen in "The Rival," a three-part Kalem drama. In this picture Flis Nilsson enacts some daring acting in which she appears to advantage.

The producing managers are now
preparing contracts which will prevent the actors and stars under their
management from posing in moving picture plays. They claim they should enjoy the exclusive profits from stellar popularity as it is they who make the stars.

Miss Clara Williams heads the
program today at the Star theater,
with Walter Edwards and a selected
cast of movie favorites in a society
drama of love and intrigue entitled
"Scales of Justice." It is replete with excitement and is in two parts. A late Domino release, "The Butcher's
Bride," a screaming, hilarious LKO
comedy, and, to make a complete program, an exciting three-part military
play, entitled "The Dead Heart," by Sir Henry Irving, are also shown.

Monday a strong, gripping military
drama, "The Revolutionist," in four
parts, will be the feature.

Joseph Galbraith, who stars in
"Flying A" dramas, played a leading
role in the stage production, "What Happened to Jones?"

This afternoon and evening will be
the last opportunity to see the fine
tabloid musical comedy company that has been playing at the Odeon theater. The Jackson and Andrews company is playing "The White Light Cafe" this afternoon and evening and
will close its engagement here this
evening and a most successful engagement it has been.

For the coming week the offering at
the Odeon will be W. L. Hall's famous "French Follies," a company of
fourteen persons—nine girls and five
men—and from reports received on
this show it promises to be a good one.

The pictures for today are the latest episode of "The Hazards of Helen,"
entitled, "A Railroaders' Bravery";
"Mr. Jarr and the Dachund"; and
"The Homecomings," an Es-
sany drama.

Aquila's latest offering, and one of the world's greatest film masterpieces,
"Beggars of the Sacred Heart," in
four intense acts, is the feature offering at the Orpheum theater today.
This drama is even greater than "Fe-
lora," that made such a hit in all the larger cities. An all star cast of noted players appears in the leading roles, and
with their clever acting, this immortal tale, so famous, is vividly and
beautifully played in film form.

Monday will be double feature day
at this popular theater and two large
and interesting pictures will be shown—Charles Chaplin in a two-
reel corking comedy of real Chaplin
type and "A Piece of Amber," an intense two-reel Kay Bee drama.

A naked new born baby plays an important part in "The Madonna,"
an American Beauty release for June 19.

Marie Dressler, who is hard at work at the Lubin studio on her new
feature film comedy, "Tillie's Tomato Surprise," written by Acton
Davies and being directed by Howell
Hansel, shattered a record of quite a cluster of years this week when she
actually got on the back of a horse,
and, alone and unaided, navigated
him from one point to another while
a couple of motion picture cameras
recorded the feat.

James A. Gundy and his "Love
Pirates" close a three-days' engagement tonight at the Palace theater.

Tonight a special program of musical numbers has been arranged with
a number of specialist acts. A two-
part Ideal photoplay, "The Other Girl," a rich comedy, "The Pretty
Policeman," and "The Pretty
Policeman" are showing on the screen.

A big surprise is coming for next week—don't miss it.

A new dramatization of Montague
Glass's stories, called "Potash and Perlmutter in Society," will be produced early in September with a cast
including Mathilde Cotterly, Barney
Bernard, Julius Tannen, Louis
Dressler, Lee Donnelly and Lee Kohl-
man.

The Bijou program today is spectacular, please the big
crowd who will attend this afternoon
and night. There is a fine drama in three parts, Charles Chaplin is seen in "A Night Out," which is a scream;
Sophia is there and she is funny;
Helen Holmes pulls the throttle of
the engine in "The Race for the Crossing," and "The Police Dog,"
another of Bray's cartoons, puts
across some funny stunts. Taken as a whole, no Saturday show has ever
equalled this one.

Monday Anna Nilsson and Guy
Guy Coombs will be seen in "The Rival," a three-part Kalem drama. In this picture Flis Nilsson enacts some daring acting in which she appears to advantage.

The producing managers are now
preparing contracts which will prevent the actors and stars under their
management from posing in moving picture plays. They claim they should enjoy the exclusive profits from stellar popularity as it is they who make the stars.

Miss Clara Williams heads the
program today at the Star theater,
with Walter Edwards and a selected
cast of movie favorites in a society
drama of love and intrigue entitled
"Scales of Justice." It is replete with excitement and is in two parts. A late Domino release, "The Butcher's
Bride," a screaming, hilarious LKO
comedy, and, to make a complete program, an exciting three-part military
play, entitled "The Dead Heart," by Sir Henry Irving, are also shown.

Monday a strong, gripping military
drama, "The Revolutionist," in four
parts, will be the feature.

Joseph Galbraith, who stars in
"Flying A" dramas, played a leading
role in the stage production, "What Happened to Jones?"

This afternoon and evening will be
the last opportunity to see the fine
tabloid musical comedy company that has been playing at the Odeon theater. The Jackson and Andrews company is playing "The White Light Cafe" this afternoon and evening and
will close its engagement here this
evening and a most successful engagement it has been.

For the coming week the offering at
the Odeon will be W. L. Hall's famous "French Follies," a company of
fourteen persons—nine girls and five
men—and from reports received on
this show it promises to be a good one.

The pictures for today are the latest episode of "The Hazards of Helen,"
entitled, "A Railroaders' Bravery";
"Mr. Jarr and the Dachund"; and
"The Homecomings," an Es-
sany drama.

Aquila's latest offering, and one of the world's greatest film masterpieces,
"Beggars of the Sacred Heart," in
four intense acts, is the feature offering at the Orpheum theater today.
This drama is even greater than "Fe-
lora," that made such a hit in all the larger cities. An all star cast of noted players appears in the leading roles, and
with their clever acting, this immortal tale, so famous, is vividly and
beautifully played in film form.

Monday will be double feature day
at this popular theater and two large
and interesting pictures will be shown—Charles Chaplin in a two-
reel corking comedy of real Chaplin
type and "A Piece of Amber," an intense two-reel Kay Bee drama.

A naked new born baby plays an important part in "The Madonna,"
an American Beauty release for June 19.

Marie Dressler, who is hard at work at the Lubin studio on her new
feature film comedy, "Tillie's Tomato Surprise," written by Acton
Davies and being directed by Howell
Hansel, shattered a record of quite a cluster of years this week when she
actually got on the back of a horse,
and, alone and unaided, navigated
him from one point to another while
a couple of motion picture cameras
recorded the feat.

James A. Gundy and his "Love
Pirates" close a three-days' engagement tonight at the Palace theater.

Tonight a special program of musical numbers has been arranged with
a number of specialist acts. A two-
part Ideal photoplay, "The Other Girl," a rich comedy, "The Pretty
Policeman," and "The Pretty
Policeman" are showing on the screen.

A big surprise is coming for next week—don't miss it.

A new dramatization of Montague
Glass's stories, called "Potash and Perlmutter in Society," will be produced early in September with a cast
including Mathilde Cotterly, Barney
Bernard, Julius Tannen, Louis
Dressler, Lee Donnelly and Lee Kohl-
man.

The Bijou program today is spectacular, please the big
crowd who will attend this afternoon
and night. There is a fine drama in three parts, Charles Chaplin is seen in "A Night Out," which is a scream;
Sophia is there and she is funny;
Helen Holmes pulls the throttle of
the engine in "The Race for the Crossing," and "The Police Dog,"
another of Bray's cartoons, puts
across some funny stunts. Taken as a whole, no Saturday show has ever
equalled this one.

Monday Anna Nilsson and Guy
Guy Coombs will be seen in "The Rival," a three-part Kalem drama. In this picture Flis Nilsson enacts some daring acting in which she appears to advantage.

The producing managers are now
preparing contracts which will prevent the actors and stars under their
management from posing in moving picture plays. They claim they should enjoy the exclusive profits from stellar popularity as it is they who make the stars.

Miss Clara Williams heads the
program today at the Star theater,
with Walter Edwards and a selected
cast of movie favorites in a society
drama of love and intrigue entitled
"Scales of Justice." It is replete with excitement and is in two parts. A late Domino release, "The Butcher's
Bride," a screaming, hilarious LKO
comedy, and, to make a complete program, an exciting three-part military
play, entitled "The Dead Heart," by Sir Henry Irving, are also shown.

Monday a strong, gripping military
drama, "The Revolutionist," in four
parts, will be the feature.

Joseph Galbraith, who stars in
"Flying A" dramas, played a leading
role in the stage production, "What Happened to Jones?"

This afternoon and evening will be
the last opportunity to see the fine
tabloid musical comedy company that has been playing at the Odeon theater. The Jackson and Andrews company is playing "The White Light Cafe" this afternoon and evening and
will close its engagement here this
evening and a most successful engagement it has been.

For the coming week the offering at
the Odeon will be W. L. Hall's famous "French Follies," a company of
fourteen persons—nine girls and five
men—and from reports received on
this show it promises to be a good one.

The pictures for today are the latest episode of "The Hazards of Helen,"
entitled, "A Railroaders' Bravery";
"Mr. Jarr and the Dachund"; and
"The Homecomings," an Es-
sany drama.

Aquila's latest offering, and one of the world's greatest film masterpieces,
"Beggars of the Sacred Heart," in
four intense acts, is the feature offering at the Orpheum theater today.
This drama is even greater than "Fe-
lora," that made such a hit in all the larger cities. An all star cast of noted players appears in the leading roles, and
with their clever acting, this immortal tale, so famous, is vividly and
beautifully played in film form.

Monday will be double feature day
at this popular theater and two large
and interesting pictures will be shown—Charles Chaplin in a two-
reel corking comedy of real Chaplin
type and "A Piece of Amber," an intense two-reel Kay Bee drama.

A naked new born baby plays an important part in "The Madonna,"
an American Beauty release for June 19.

Marie Dressler, who is hard at work at the Lubin studio on her new
feature film comedy, "Tillie's Tomato Surprise," written by Acton
Davies and being directed by Howell
Hansel, shattered a record of quite a cluster of years this week when she
actually got on the back of a horse,
and, alone and unaided, navigated
him from one point to another while
a couple of motion picture cameras
recorded the feat.

James A. Gundy and his "Love
Pirates" close a three-days' engagement tonight at the Palace theater.

Tonight a special program of musical numbers has been arranged with
a number of specialist acts. A two-
part Ideal photoplay, "The Other Girl," a rich comedy, "The Pretty
Policeman," and "The Pretty
Policeman" are showing on the screen.

A big surprise is coming for next week—don't miss it.

A new dramatization of Montague
Glass's stories, called "Potash and Perlmutter in Society," will be produced early in September with a cast
including Mathilde Cotterly, Barney
Bernard, Julius Tannen, Louis
Dressler, Lee Donnelly and Lee Kohl-
man.

The Bijou program today is spectacular, please the big
crowd who will attend this afternoon
and night. There is a fine drama in three parts, Charles Chaplin is seen in "A Night Out," which is a scream;
Sophia is there and she is funny;
Helen Holmes pulls the throttle of
the engine in "The Race for the Crossing," and "The Police Dog,"
another of Bray's cartoons, puts
across some funny stunts. Taken as a whole, no Saturday show has ever
equalled this one.

Monday Anna Nilsson and Guy
Guy Coombs will be seen in "The Rival," a three-part Kalem drama. In this picture Flis Nilsson enacts some daring acting in which she appears to advantage.

The producing managers are now
preparing contracts which will prevent the actors and stars under their
management from posing in moving
picture plays. They claim they should enjoy the exclusive profits from stellar popularity as it is they who make the stars.

Miss Clara Williams heads the
program today at the Star theater,
with Walter Edwards and a selected
cast of movie favorites in a society
drama of love and intrigue entitled
"Scales of Justice." It is replete with excitement and is in two parts. A late Domino release, "The Butcher's
Bride," a screaming, hilarious LKO
comedy, and, to make a complete program, an exciting three-part military
play, entitled "The Dead Heart," by Sir Henry Irving, are also shown.

Monday a strong, gripping military
drama, "The Revolutionist," in four
parts, will be the feature.

Joseph Galbraith, who stars in
"Flying A" dramas, played a leading
role in the stage production, "What Happened to Jones?"

This afternoon and evening will be
the last opportunity to see the fine
tabloid musical comedy company that has been playing at the Odeon theater. The Jackson and Andrews company is playing "The White Light Cafe" this afternoon and evening and
will close its engagement here this
evening and a most successful engagement it has been.

For the coming week the offering at
the Odeon will be W. L. Hall's famous "French Follies," a company of
fourteen persons—nine girls and five
men—and from reports received on
this show it promises to be a good one.

The pictures for today are the latest episode of "The Hazards of Helen,"
entitled, "A Railroaders' Bravery";
"Mr. Jarr and the Dachund"; and
"The Homecomings," an Es-
sany drama.

Aquila's latest offering, and one of the world's greatest film masterpieces,
"Beggars of the Sacred Heart," in
four intense acts, is the feature offering at the Orpheum theater today.
This drama is even greater than "Fe-
lora," that made such a hit in all the larger cities. An all star cast of noted players appears in the leading roles, and
with their clever acting, this immortal tale, so famous, is vividly and
beautifully played in film form.

Monday will be double feature day
at this popular theater and two large
and interesting pictures will be shown—Charles Chaplin in a two-
reel corking comedy of real Chaplin
type and "A Piece of Amber," an intense two-reel Kay Bee drama.

A naked new born baby plays an important